Vikings Defensive End Danielle Hunter

Q: On the defense disrupting the Green Bay Packers offense...

A: We had to get pressure up the middle and get our defensive ends on the outside. We had to contain Aaron Rodgers because we know he can make plays with his legs.

Q: It seemed like everyone was talking after the whistle. Was there extra emotion between the players tonight?

A: Yeah, we are competitive. We have been playing against them for years now, we know each other and when we go out there it's competition.

Q: When it is third and fourth down, is that when the defense is at its best?

A: Of course. We like to penetrate their offensive line and clog up the middle.

Q: What is it like to line up with Linval Joseph and Sheldon Richardson and the disrupting they can provide up the middle?

A: It is a good feeling because we feed off each other. If they go up the middle and the quarterback scrambles outside, then Stephen Weatherly, Everson Griffen, or I are there to make the play.
