

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MINNESOTA VIKINGS AND SLEEP NUMBER TO BUILD HOME FOR TWIN CITIES HABITAT FOR HUMANITY FAMILY

Eagan, Minn. (September 17, 2021) – Next week the Minnesota Vikings and Sleep Number will partner to build a home for a Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity family. During the week-long project, current Vikings players and staff members will volunteer to help build a home that fits the homeowner family's needs.

The buyer of the Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity home will be invited to U.S. Bank Stadium for a game day experience and will be surprised with Sleep Number 360® Smart Beds.

Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity brings people together to create, preserve, and promote affordable homeownership and advance racial equity in housing. Twin Cities Habitat builds, repairs, and sells homes to local families with an affordable mortgage and provides education and coaching for long-term homeownership success.

What: Minnesota Vikings Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity Build Week

Who: Vikings Representatives (players subject to change)

- CB Mackensie Alexander
- CB Bashaud Breeland
- FB C.J. Ham
- WR K.J. Osborn
- DE D.J. Wonnum
- S Xavier Woods
- Chief Operating Officer Andrew Miller
- Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Steve Poppen

CEO of Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity Chris Coleman

When: Tuesday, September 21
1:30 – 2:30 p.m. CT

Where: 3247 Irving Avenue N
Minneapolis, Minn. 55412

Media Opp: Photo and video opportunities
Media interviews from approximately 1:30 – 2:30 p.m.

RSVP: Please contact Vikings communications coordinator Carly Bonk at bonkc@vikings.nfl.net or 612.718.4093.

www.vikings.1rmg.com